PROFILE OVERVIEW

Rex enjoys a broad family practice. He has most recently gained a strong following and reputation as a care practitioner but this has not detracted from his core skills as both an ancillary relief and private law specialist. He particularly enjoys cases with either an international element, such as relocation cases, or legally or factually complicated ones which require an eye for detail and careful analysis.

EDUCATION

- Charterhouse school (1974-1979)
- University of Sussex (Biochemistry) (1979 -1982)
- Britannia Royal Navy College, Dartmouth (1982)
- Polytechnic of Central London: Diploma in Law (1989)
- Bar Finals (1991)
